

CULTURAL-HISTORICAL OBJECTS

1 JELGAVA HOLY TRINITY CHURCH TOWER

Akadēmijas Street 1, tel. +371 63005445, 63005447, www.tornis.jelgava.lv

Both children and adults will enjoy an interesting visit to the restored tower of the former Holy Trinity church. The tower's contemporary history exhibitions present life stories of the first national presidents of Latvia, symbols of Jelgava, significant historical events and national costumes of Zemgale. Take time to enjoy a panoramic view of the city from the sightseeing platform on the 9th floor of the tower, where an exhibition hall is also located. A special atmosphere can be enjoyed at the tower's restaurant. The tourism information centre on the ground floor provides useful resources for the regional traveller.

2 JELGAVA PALACE 3 VAULT OF DUKES OF COURLAND

Lielā Street 2, Palace Museum tel. +371 63005617, www.jelgavaspils.lv
Family vault (May–October), tel. +371 63962197, 26499151, www.rundale.net

A former residence of the Dukes of Courland and Semigallia, the palace is now home to the Latvia University of Life Sciences and Technologies. Jelgava Palace is the largest Baroque style building in the Baltics and was built by architect F. B. Rastrelli in 1738. Information on history and construction of the palace can be found in the Palace Museum, but if you would like to encounter a genuine touch of history, visit the Vault of the Dukes of Courland – the final resting place of 30 representatives of the Dukes' Dynasties.

4 JELGAVA HISTORY AND ART MUSEUM OF Ģ. ELIASS

Akadēmijas Street 10, tel. +371 63023383, www.jvmm.lv

The beautiful classical-style building, known by its original name Academia Petrina, was built by the architect S. Jensen in 1775. Today the building is a home to the Jelgava History and Art museum, where you can enjoy the art collection of Latvian painting classic Ģ. Eliass. In 1987 the monument to painter was unveiled next to the museum. The museum also offers interactive activities for visitors of different age groups.

5 MEMORIAL MUSEUM OF Ā. ALUNĀNS

Filozofu Street 3, tel. +371 63021180, www.alunans.lv

In this house, located at Filozofu Street 3, the famous father of Latvian theatre Ādolfs Alunāns spent the last three years of his life. A modern interactive exhibit featuring the life and creative work of the father of Latvian theatre is open for visitors. The restored museum building won a silver award as "The Best Building of Latvia 2011" in the "Restoration" category.

6 JELGAVA EXHIBITION OF LATVIAN RAILWAY HISTORY MUSEUM

Stacijas Street 3, tel. +371 63096494, www.railwaymuseum.lv

The Jelgava Railway junction was formed in 1868, becoming one of the first and most important in Latvia. The museum reflects the history of the railway and daily work-related items, showing railway development in Jelgava from its beginning to the present day.

7 ST. SIMEON'S AND ST. ANNA'S ORTHODOX CATHEDRAL

Raiņa Street 5, tel. +371 63020207

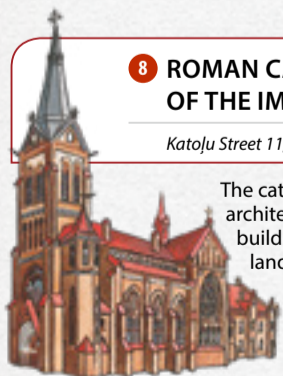

Church foundations were laid in 1774 by architect F. B. Rastrelli. It was the first Orthodox Church in Zemgale. From 1890 till 1892 a new church by architect N. Chagin was built. The church has bright blue domes and nine bells, of which the largest is 830 kg.

8 ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE VIRGIN MARY

Katoļu Street 11, tel. +371 63021150

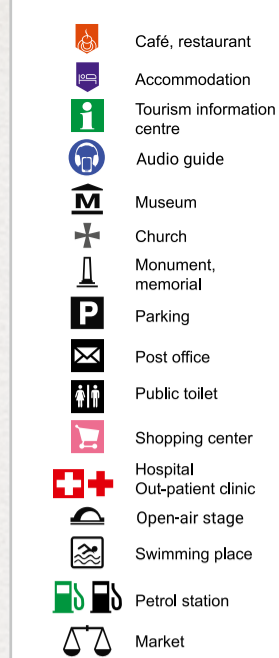

The cathedral is the best known work of Liepāja architect K. E. Strandman. The red brick neo-Gothic style building was built in 1906. The significant architectural landmark was badly damaged during the World War II in 1944. Its restoration was completed in 1992, when the spire of the tower was restored to its original height.

9 ST. ANNA'S LUTHERAN CATHEDRAL

Lielā Street 22a, tel. +371 29123969

St. Anna's Cathedral is the oldest preserved building in Jelgava – a Renaissance monument and Latvian Lutheran Church. The wooden church was built in 1573, but the present masonry building was built from 1638 to 1641. A secular tree grows at St. Anna's Church; the oak was planted in honour of Martin Luther in 1883. The church is the venue of sacred and classical music concerts.

10 ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

Jāņa Street 1, tel. +371 63023790

The church was built from 1845 to 1847 by the architect V. Schultz, but the tower was built in 1882. Since 1862 it has been called St. John's Church. The church was once surrounded by the Writers' Cemetery, Catholic Cemetery, John's Cemetery, and Old Believers' Cemetery, which were later transformed into Alunāna Park and Stacijas Square.

11 JĀNIS ČAKSTE BOULEVARD PROMENADE AND BRIDGE "MITAVA"

near Bridge "Mitava"

The pedestrian promenade at J. Čakste Boulevard has two levels – parallel to the street and along the river's edge. The sightseeing platforms are located on the upper level of the promenade, which forms a 3 m high waterfall, while the 152 m long bridge is one of the longest pedestrian and bicycle bridges in Latvia. Due to its technical solution, it is considered to be unique in the Baltic States, it is a three-dimensional swan neck bridge with 28 bracing wires held by two pylons.

12 PASTA (POST) ISLAND

A multifunctional place for recreational, cultural and social activities. On the island there are several children's playgrounds, during the winter months – a public skating rink, and in summer visitors can take a dip on the island's beach. At the far end of the island there is an explorative environmental area, divided into several areas: rural ranch, forest, marsh, meadow and field, as well as a spectators' platform on three levels. In the centre of the island there is an open-air stage in the form of an amphitheatre.

13 SCULPTURE – FOUNTAIN "JELGAVA'S STUDENT"

J. Čakste Boulevard, near Bridge Mitava

By Mitava Bridge there is a bronze sculpture – fountain by sculptor Kārlis Īle "Jelgava's student". The artist himself named the student Jēkabs Ceriņš – he is a third-year student born on July 26.

14 MEMORIAL SIGN IN HONOUR OF THE SINGER NORA BUMBIERE

Square behind the Jelgava Culture Centre

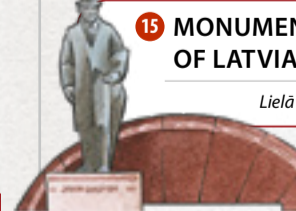

In 2012, on the square behind the Jelgava Culture Centre, a memorial sign was placed dedicated to Nora Bumbiere, the legendary Latvian singer, a citizen of Jelgava (1947 to 1994). In the sculpture, sculptor Kārlis Īle has united two songs of N. Bumbiere – "Song about the last leaf" and "Mute song". In the darkness, the sculpture is illuminated – its base is red-lighted, creating associations with glowing charcoal.

15 MONUMENT TO J. ČAKSTE, THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF LATVIA

Lielā Street 1a

The monument to Jānis Čakste, the first President of the Republic of Latvia, is located next to the Holy Trinity Church Tower. The monument, created by artist Arta Dumpe, was unveiled on November 14, 2003.

16 MONUMENT TO THE LIBERATORS OF JELGAVA "LĀČPLĒŠIS"

Stacijas Square

The monument is dedicated to the liberators of Jelgava, who freed the city from General Bermont's army on November 21, 1919. The first monument, created by sculptor Kārlis Jansons, was unveiled in 1932. The monument was removed during Soviet times. In 1992, sculptor Andrejs Jansons set up the second monument, a recreation of his father's original.

17 LOVE ALLEY

Dobeļes highway between Pūra and Kārlīnu Road

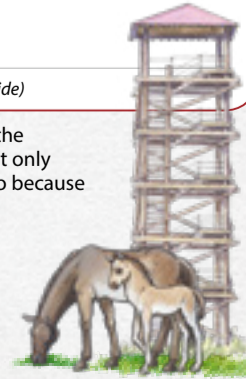

A place where two friends, Tetsch and Schwander, advisors to the Duke of Courland and Semigallia, used to take their walks. It is an alley of birch trees that later connected the graves of both men. The legend says that both men had fallen in love with the same girl, yet they had given up their feelings and remained bachelors for the sake of their friendship, but the girl married another. A tradition was formed in the 18th century for the newlyweds to plant birch trees in the alley; and the tradition has been kept until this day, giving the place a name – Love Alley.

18 LIELUPE FLOODLAND MEADOWS AND WATCHTOWER

Pils sala (Palace Island), tel. +371 20264343 (nature guide)

There are floodland meadows on the island behind the Jelgava Palace – a protected area which is special not only because of its diverse plant and bird species, but also because of its primary inhabitants – more than 60 wild horses. The island is home to the resting area and a 20 metres high viewing tower, from which you can observe the wild horses, flood plains and a scenery of two rivers. The best way to explore the island is to go together with a knowledgeable specialist or nature guide.
